Product specifics

The integration system for solar panels leaves intact the underlying roof. The panels stay on a system of planks of Zinc, aluminum and titanium. The system is modular, so repeatable at will. You can cover the whole or only a part of the roof. It’s also possible integrate windows. The acceptable gradient is more than 23°. The system is applicable to stone roofs and to roof with ceramic tiles.